Omaha, Neb – Spend St. Patrick's Day with the Irish Tenors live in Omaha! Finbar Wright, Anthony Kearns, and Karl Scully join voices to breathe new life into Ireland's most beloved traditional songs. Enjoy favorites like "Danny Boy," "My Wild Irish Rose," and "Fields of Athenry" complimented by the lush sounds of the Omaha Symphony March 17 at 8 p.m. at the Holland Performing Arts Center. The Irish Tenors are one of the most successful Irish touring acts ever, second only to U2. Since their debut on PBS in 1998, the group has produced seven best-selling albums that have reached the upper echelons of the Billboard charts. Get your tickets now to experience an authentic, unforgettable St. Patrick's Day!

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through May. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Discovery, Casual Classics, West "O" Casual Classics, and Family series concerts, the orchestra tours both Nebraska and Iowa providing education and community engagement concerts and special events.
