Omaha, Neb – The Omaha Symphony is thrilled to present Scheherazade January 15 and 16 at 8 p.m. at the Holland Performing Arts Center. Rimsky-Korsakov's masterpiece is his musical interpretation of "Arabian Nights," the fable of a ruthless Sultan and Scheherazade, a cunning storyteller who saves her own life through spellbinding tales. Dazzling orchestration brings the audience into the story, capturing the exotic setting and colorful characters.

Maestro Thomas Wilkins will conduct these MasterWorks performances, sponsored by Omaha Steaks. Other program highlights include Respighi's lush Fountains of Rome and Britten's Four Sea Interludes from the opera Peter Grimes.

Treat yourself to a night of drama and seduction with Scheherazade! Single tickets start at $15. To purchase your tickets, call 402.342.3560, order online at www.omahasymphony.org, or visit the Omaha Symphony Box Office at 1605 Howard Street.

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through June. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Sights and Sounds, and Family series concerts, the orchestra tours both Nebraska and Iowa providing education and community engagement concerts and special events. For tickets or information regarding the Omaha Symphony, call 402.342.3560 or visit www.omahasymphony.org.
