Omaha, Neb – The Omaha Symphony is ringing in its first Pops Series concert of the season with a celebration of great American music and talent! Patriotic Celebration will salute the Star and Stripes with a refreshing mix of Broadway show tunes and classic American anthems. Hear favorites like “God Bless the U.S.A.,” “Tie A Yellow Ribbon,” “Let Freedom Ring,” and the Armed Forces Salute November 20-22 at the Holland Center.

Leading the orchestra for Patriotic Celebration will be Houston Symphony Pops principal conductor Michael Krajewski. Guest soloists Max Quinlan, Zachary Prince, and Bellevue native Mark Willett join him, providing high-energy vocals to Broadway hits from 1776, Of Thee I Sing, Strike Up the Band, and more! Topping off this all-American tribute are the talented voices of Omaha's own UNO Concert Choir and the Omaha Symphonic Chorus. All these musical elements combine to create a lush, powerful sound and a performance loaded with personality!

To honor veterans, the Omaha Symphony is offering ½ price Patriotic Celebration tickets to all active and retired military personnel. This special discount expires Thursday, Nov. 19.

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through June. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Sights and Sounds, and Family series concerts, the Omaha Symphony's nationally recognized education programs touch the lives of more than 37,000 schoolchildren each year.
