Omaha, Neb – Explore the mysteries and marvels of the seas with the Omaha Symphony! This Friday and Saturday at the Holland Center, audiences are invited to dive deep into ocean life with stunning footage from the popular BBC/Discovery TV series The Blue Planet, complemented by live orchestration and narration.

Concertgoers will view breathtaking underwater images projected on a big screen above the stage, as the orchestra provides a lush, live soundtrack. Local TV personality Dave Webber will narrate the show, adding information and humor to this symphonic feast for the senses.

The Blue Planet, the orchestra's final Sights & Sounds program of the 2010/11 season, is sponsored by Bank of the West. For tickets and more information, call 402-342-3560, 402-345-0606, or visit www.omahasymphony.org.

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through June. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Sights and Sounds, and Family series concerts, the Omaha Symphony's nationally recognized education programs touch the lives of more than 37,000 schoolchildren each year. For tickets or information regarding the Omaha Symphony, call 402.342.3560 or visit www.omahasymphony.org
