Omaha, Neb – Take the timeless movie musicals of Rodgers & Hammerstein, add the lush, sparkling beauty of a live orchestra, and you've got a not-to-be-missed multimedia concert experience! Watch the classic films you love in a whole new way at Rodgers & Hammerstein: At the Movies, presented by the Omaha Symphony April 8-10 at the Holland Center.

Concertgoers will enjoy scenes and songs from The Sound of Music, Oklahoma!, The King and I, South Pacific, Carousel, and more! The performances will feature stunning remastered clips and original vocals projected on a big screen above the stage. On stage, the orchestra will provide a live soundtrack, adding an exciting and fresh dimension to the scores you know and love. Hear gems like "Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin'," "Some Enchanted Evening," "Do-Re-Mi," and "Getting to Know You" and make memories with your family and friends.

Rodgers & Hammerstein: At the Movies is sponsored by the Nebraska Medical Center and the University of Nebraska Medical Center. For tickets and more information, call 402-342-3560, 402-345-0606, or visit www.omahasymphony.org.

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through June. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Sights and Sounds, and Family series concerts, the Omaha Symphony's nationally recognized education programs touch the lives of more than 37,000 schoolchildren each year.
