Omaha, Neb – Imagine the Beatles playing in concert with a live orchestra. What would that have sounded like? Thousands will find out when the Classical Mystery Tour rocks the Holland Center Saturday, March 6 at 8 PM. This tribute sensation combines a full rock band, a full orchestra, singers with uncanny visual and vocal resemblance, and the Beatles' songbook of hits!

A sell-out crowd will experience "Penny Lane" with a live trumpet section and the beauty of "Yesterday with a string quartet. The Classical Mystery Tour will perform all the Beatles' hits exactly as they were written and orchestrated. Here are just a few chart-toppers from the set list:

A Hard Day's Night	All You Need Is Love
Here Comes the Sun	Eleanor Rigby
Come Together	Yellow Submarine

Due to demand, partial-view seating in the choral balcony (behind the stage) has been made available. To purchase these discounted tickets at just $20, please call the Omaha Symphony Box Office at 402.342.3560 or order online at www.omahasymphony.org.

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through June. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Sights and Sounds, and Family series concerts, the orchestra tours both Nebraska and Iowa providing education and community engagement concerts and special events.
