Omaha, Neb – Join us for a muy caliente concert that showcases the colorful music of Latin America! The Omaha Symphony presents South of the Border Saturday, April 25 at 7:30 p.m. at the Holland Performing Arts Center and Sunday, April 26 at 2 p.m. at Millard North High School.

Enjoy a sizzling Argentine tango and a fusion of Mexican folk songs at this performance that is as relaxed as it is rhythmic. Resident conductor Ernest Richardson will share stories and background from stage, helping the audience get more meaning from the music. These concerts are designed to offer a casual atmosphere for music lovers of all ages to listen and learn.

Single tickets to South of the Border start at $15 and are available at 402.342.3560, www.omahasymphony.org, or the Omaha Symphony Ticket Office at 1605 Howard Street.

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through May. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Discovery, Casual Classics, West "O" Casual Classics, and Family series concerts, the orchestra tours both Nebraska and Iowa providing education and community engagement concerts and special events. For tickets or information regarding the Omaha Symphony, call 402.342.3560 or visit www.omahasymphony.org
