Omaha, Neb – Eagles songs like “Desperado,” “Take It Easy,” and “Life in the Fast Lane” defined the ‘70s and still dominate the airwaves today. This month in Omaha, you can hear these freewheeling chart-toppers like you’ve never heard them before—with live orchestra! Join the Omaha Symphony and innovative rock ensemble Jeans ‘n Classics for The Music of the Eagles Saturday, April 16 at 8 p.m. at the Holland Performing Arts Center.

The Music of the Eagles, part of the wildly successful Symphony Rocks series, will be conducted by Maestro Ernest Richardson. Vocalists and band members from Jeans ‘n Classics will perform the Eagles’ greatest hits—including a full-length version of “Hotel California.”

The Music of the Eagles is sponsored by series sponsor First National Bank and presenting sponsor Woodmen of the World. For tickets to the Music of the Eagles, call 402-342-3560, 402-345-0606, or visit www.omahasymphony.org. Please note: this show is likely to sell out. Seating is extremely limited.

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through June. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Sights and Sounds, and Family series concerts, the Omaha Symphony’s nationally recognized education programs touch the lives of more than 37,000 schoolchildren each year. For tickets or information regarding the Omaha Symphony, call 402.342.3560 or visit www.omahasymphony.org
