Omaha, Neb – Adventure awaits local families this Sunday, April 11 at the Holland Center, as the Omaha Symphony teams up with KETV’s Rob McCartney and professional dancers to tell the story of Peter and the Wolf.

A brave little boy and his friends from the forest face off against a hungry wolf in Prokofiev’s beloved musical tale. Dancers from Robin Welch Dance Arts will bring the colorful characters to life. Before the concert, kids of all ages can experience an instrument petting zoo in the lobby—giving them a chance to get hands-on with all the instruments they’ll see on stage.

Peter and the Wolf is part of the Omaha Symphony’s 2009/10 Family Series. This performance is sponsored by Children’s Hospital and Medical Center and Three Dog Bakery.

Tickets are affordable: just $7 for kids and $9.75 for adults.

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through June. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Sights and Sounds, and Family series concerts, the orchestra tours both Nebraska and Iowa providing education and community engagement concerts and special events. For tickets or information regarding the Omaha Symphony, call 402.342.3560 or visit www.omahasymphony.org.
