Omaha, NE – The Omaha Symphony presents the music of Frank Sinatra May 13-15 at the Holland Performing Arts Center. Steve Lippia, hailed by Sinatra’s own music director as “the best young singer I’ve heard in 25 years,” will wow audiences with his smooth vocals and swingin’ stage presence. Concertgoers will experience a feel-good Sinatra hit parade, including “New York, New York,” “Come Fly With Me,” “My Way,” “That’s Life,” “All The Way,” and more!

Lippia has quickly established his place among the finest interpreters of standards and traditional pop music in the nation. He has performed with dozens of major symphony orchestras and headlined highly successful, extended engagements in Las Vegas and Atlantic City. He has even headlined at the legendary Birdland Jazz Club in New York City, backed by the Nelson Riddle and Woody Herman orchestras. TV appearances include Extra, FOX’s Good Day New York, CNN’s Showbiz Tonight, ABC, and the BBC.

PRAISE FOR STEVE LIPPIA:

“The talk of Las Vegas...”

Las Vegas Style

“Stop what you’re doing and head to the Hilton, because he’s that good. It’s an exhilarating night of music and lyrics that will never die, just like Sinatra will never die for his fans, as long as Steve Lippia is there to bring him back to life.”

New York Daily News

“Nature has blessed Steve Lippia with a set of pipes that conjure an astounding approximation of Frank Sinatra’s voice.”

Courier Post

“The audience hangs on every note...it’s the end of the show that really shows how good this guy is. The show-stoppers ‘My Way’ and ‘New York, New York’ put the audience on its feet for multiple standing ovations.”
