2009/10 Season comes to high-energy, hard rock finish with the Music of Led Zeppelin

What: The Song Remains the Same: The Music of Led Zeppelin
Sponsored by: Lexus of Omaha

When: Friday, June 11 @ 8 PM

Where: Holland Performing Arts Center 1200 Douglas St.

Omaha, NE— Feel the power and electric energy of The Music of Led Zeppelin Friday, June 11 at the Holland Performing Arts Center. Audiences will hear Zeppelin hits like “Stairway to Heaven,” “Kashmir,” “Black Dog,” and more, performed by the dynamic Jeans N’ Classics rock band, lead singer Michael Shotton, and the full Omaha Symphony.

This Special Concert—separate from any series—brings the 2009/10 season to an exciting conclusion. The addition of this popular programming also makes sense considering recent sales trends. “The success of the Symphony Rocks season over the past two years has helped to expand our audiences. Whether it is a “Music of” concert or an original artist with the orchestra, audiences have embraced the concerts in this series,” said Lex Poppens, vice president of marketing for the Omaha Symphony.

Embrace your inner rockstar—don’t miss this memorable night of legendary music! For tickets, visit www.omahasymphony.org or call the Ticket Office at 402.342.3560.

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through June. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Sights and Sounds, and Family series concerts, the orchestra tours both Nebraska and Iowa providing education and community engagement concerts and special events. For tickets or information regarding the Omaha Symphony, call 402.342.3560 or visit www.omahasymphony.org.
