Calling all Caped Crusaders and Supergirls for Symphony Spooktacular: Superheroes!
Symphony's annual Halloween program invites children to dress up, trick-or-treat in Holland Center lobbies

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 12, 2017- Avengers, assemble! Bring your capes, cowls, and secret identities to the Omaha Symphony's Family Series concert, Symphony Spooktacular: Superheroes!, Sunday, October 22, 2 p.m., at the Holland Performing Arts Center.

Led by Principal Pops Conductor Ernest Richardson, Symphony Spooktacular: Superheroes! celebrates Halloween in with music from your favorite superhero movies like Batman, Spider-Man, The Avengers, Iron Man II, Captain America, Superman, Fantastic Four, and The Incredibles. To the Rescue!, a medley of TV superhero themes, will delight parents and kids alike. Local professional chorus Résonance will be featured throughout the concert.

Children and families are encouraged to dress in costume for Symphony Spooktacular, especially in superhero costumes. There will be a drawing/contest for children in costume, with extra-special superhero-themed prizes for the winners.

Families may arrive early at 1:15 p.m. for preconcert activities, including an instrument petting zoo and arts and crafts in the orchestra level lobby. Concertgoers are invited to trick-or-treat before and after the concert in the Holland Center lobbies. Prizes are provided by Oriental Trading Company, Symphony Spooktacular's Official Fun Sponsor™.

The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 100 live orchestral performances from September through June. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Movies, Symphony Joslyn, and Family series concerts, the Omaha Symphony's nationally recognized education programs touch the lives of nearly 31,000 students each year.
