Omaha Symphony announces *Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone*TM in Concert

For the first time in Omaha, audiences will experience the symphony performing music to the entire film from one of the most beloved films series in history

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 14, 2017 – The Omaha Symphony will perform Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone in Concert on Saturday, Nov. 25, 7:30 p.m., and Sunday, Nov. 26, 2 p.m., at the Holland Performing Arts Center, as part of the Harry Potter Film Concert Series. The concert will feature Principal Pops Conductor Ernest Richardson conducting the Omaha Symphony performing, to picture, every note from Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone. Audiences will be able to relive the magic of the entire film in high-definition on a 40-foot screen while hearing the orchestra perform John Williams' unforgettable score live to picture. Tickets are currently on sale at www.omahasymphony.org and through Ticket Omaha at 402.345.0606.

CineConcerts and Warner Bros. Consumer Products announced the Harry Potter Film Concert Series, a new global concert tour celebrating the Harry Potter films, early last year. The Harry Potter Film Concert that kicked off in June 2016 is another magical experience from J.K. Rowling's Wizarding World and is scheduled to include hundreds of performances across more than 35 countries around the world through 2018.

Justin Freer, President of CineConcerts and Producer/Conductor of the Harry Potter Film Concert Series explains, "The Harry Potter film series is a once-in-a-lifetime cultural phenomenon that continues to delight millions of fans around the world. It is with great pleasure that we introduce for the first time ever an opportunity to experience the award-winning music scores played live by a symphony orchestra, all while the beloved film is simultaneously projected onto the big screen. It will be an unforgettable event."
