

Haley Haas is the Artistic Director and Co-Founder of Anastasis Theatre Co. She is a theatre maker with passion for directing, community engagement, facilitation, and acting. Haley worked for 15 years as an actor and the Training and Education Director for R.E.S.P.E.C.T., a touring educational theatre company. Her most recent directing credits include, More Than a Number, Stories: On the Brink, and Voices Unbound with Anastasis Theatre Co. As an actor, favorite regional shows include: Silent Sky (Henrietta TAG award for Outstanding Lead Actress), and Red Summer (Virginia) at the Blue Barn Theatre; Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? (Honey) at The Circle Theatre; and The Blues of Knowing Why (ensemble) at the Union for Contemporary Art. Haley holds a BFA in Theater Performance from Creighton University. She has also trained with the groundbreaking community-engaged theater company Cornerstone based in Las Angeles, CA.