

Rachel Potter, an acclaimed Broadway star and accomplished Nashville Recording artist, has been recognized by US Weekly as "One to Watch" and praised by the Hollywood Reporter for her "crystalline vocals." With a successful career in both musical theater and country music, Rachel has showcased her talent on stages of all sizes.

Rachel's impressive resume includes her turn as the ever "popular" Glinda understudy in the National Tour of Wicked. Next, she made her Broadway debut as Wednesday Addams in The Addams Family, where she shared the stage with Bebe Neuwirth and Brooke Shields as Morticia. She then went on to originate the role of the Mistress in the Tony Nominated revival of Evita, alongside Ricky Martin and Michael Cerveris. Her standout performance on the Original Broadway Cast Recording of the production, singing the poignant song "Another Suitcase in Another Hall," further solidified her place in the Broadway community.

Hailing from St. Petersburg, Florida, Rachel's journey in the entertainment industry began at Walt Disney World, where she portrayed iconic characters such as Ariel, Belle, and Nemo. She made her way into New York City as a top 15 finalist on MTV's Legally Blonde: The Search for Elle Woods.

Transitioning from Broadway to Nashville, Rachel garnered national attention as a Top 12 finalist on season 3 of FOX's The X Factor. Her audition with her version of Queen's "Somebody to Love" earned international praise, and continues to amass millions of views online. In addition to her solo career, Rachel has collaborated numerous times with the world renowned Acapella groups VoicePlay and Voctave. Most recently, Rachel voiced the theme song, "Journey to Fantasy Springs," for Tokyo DisneySea's new land "Fantasy Springs."

Rachel has been featured as a guest soloist with symphony orchestras all over the world in concerts spanning everything from Country to Broadway and Holiday to Patriotic, including the Dallas Symphony, Houston Symphony, St. Louis Symphony, Utah Symphony, Phoenix Symphony, Evansville Philharmonic, Youngstown Symphony, Colorado Springs Philharmonic, Cape Symphony, Charleston Symphony, Heartland Festival Orchestra, Hawaii Symphony, Naples Philharmonic, Anchorage Symphony, Reno Philharmonic, Allentown Symphony, Lansing Symphony, Wheeling Symphony, Maryland Symphony, Tucson Symphony, Calgary Philharmonic, Buffalo Philharmonic, Santa Rosa Symphony, South Dakota Symphony, Virginia Symphony, West Virginia Symphony,

Rockford Symphony, Quad City Symphony, Abilene Philharmonic, Battle Creek Symphony, North Charleston Pops, Aiken Symphony, Ocean City Pops, among others.

Residing in Nashville, TN, Rachel remains focused on recording and writing music, as well as enjoying a successful career in real estate. Balancing her professional endeavors with her most important role yet - “mommy” to Jude, Elliot, and Myla - Rachel's passion for music and family shines through in all aspects of her life. Stay connected with Rachel on social media @therachepotter.