Narwicz painted while the symphony performed Debussy's La Mer conducted by Ankush Kumar Bahl for the premiere of the 2022-2023 Masterworks season at the Holland Performing Arts Center in Omaha, NE.

Prints are from the original paintings created during the performances, printed on archival artist paper. Framing available upon request at an additional charge.
